The Catherine McGann Memorial Award

Calendar Terms

Established in June 1998 by family and friends in memory of Catherine McGann. Awarded annually to the graduate student in the Department of French who has produced the best thesis in the past calendar year. Selection will be made by the Admissions and Awards Committee in the Department of French Studies. Value: variable

Fund Guidelines

1. Awarded on the basis of academic excellence to the MA or PhD student in the Department of French Studies who has produced the best thesis in the past calendar year.

2. Selection will be made by the Admissions and Awards Committee in the Department of French Studies by the end of January. The committee shall review the following materials for each nomination: the thesis abstract, a supervisor’s letter of nomination and a letter of support from one other member of the thesis examining committee (and the thesis copy if required by the Committee).