REMINDER

When emailing the Psychology Undergraduate Office, please remember to use your Queen's email address as Queen’s ITS filters non-Queen’s emails. All emails should include: name, student number and your plan (MAJ, MED, GEN or MIN). This helps us tailor our answer to your specific plan and year! Thank you!
One of the oldest psychology departments in Scotland and the UK, combining world leading research and award-winning teaching.

Guaranteed to get your choice of classes
We do not over-recruit in our degree programs. This means that once you are accepted to our degree program, you will never be denied entry to any psychology class for which you have the pre-requisites. In addition, classes are designed and taught by permanent members of our faculty, and our staff-student ratio of better than 1:20 ensures an enhanced learning experience in a supportive environment.

Hands-on research experience
We provide many opportunities to enrich your studies with hands-on research experience from both a voluntary and curricular perspective. Classes at all levels have a laboratory component, and there are also opportunities for voluntary contributions to active research projects with individual faculty members.

Teaching and Research excellence
The Department of Psychology is one of the oldest in the UK and continues to combine world leading research and award-winning teaching, which has allowed us to attract permanent faculty members from other highly regarded universities, including Harvard, Dartmouth, UCLA and Oxford. We take great pride in our teaching and the success of our students and our degrees provide an excellent first step towards numerous careers in professional psychology. Many of our graduates go on to careers in Clinical, Educational, and Forensic Psychology.

Who will teach me at the University of Aberdeen?
At Aberdeen you will be taught by international level researchers. All tenured faculty members contribute to the undergraduate degree teaching and so you will be exposed to world class expertise in all areas of psychology.

Study Abroad
Undergraduate students enrolled at a North American college or university can spend a semester or year at the University of Aberdeen. The University of Aberdeen is fully semesterised, which means you can study at Aberdeen for the Fall Semester (September-December), Spring Semester (January-May) or a full academic year. All our courses within the undergraduate programme up to Level 3 are available to Study Abroad students, so if you want to come for a semester, or two, you can study in the same stimulating environment as our own undergraduate students.

3RD YEARS

QUIP internships are all 12 or 16 months in length, paid, and full-time. Arts & Science students who complete an internship through QUIP would graduate with a “Bachelor of Science (Honours) with Professional Internship” or “Bachelor of Arts (Honours) with Professional Internship”. Celestica in Toronto is hiring a Communications & Quote Controller Intern for May 2018. They are targeting students in social sciences. The quote controller acts as the Indirect Procurement “Request for Quote/Information” (RFX) focal point between external and internal stakeholders. They are the communication engine of the department. The intern will set up documents with vendors, develop comparison charts, create reports, manage a database, and coordinate the content, layout and publication of the department newsletter. This could be a fit for social science students who are interested in exploring a career related to procurement. They are hiring on an ongoing basis, so applicants are advised to apply as soon as possible. Students must first register in QUIP to apply to positions and can email quip@queensu.ca for more information.

Mitacs is accepting applications for competitive international research opportunities, including student travel to and from Canada. The deadline to apply is November 8, 2017, at 5 p.m. PT. Projects last 12–24 weeks and are open to graduate students in all disciplines. Select destinations are also open to senior undergraduates. Funding varies by destination. Students in Canada can do research in: Brazil, China, France, India, Israel, Korea, Mexico and Tunisia. Students from the following countries can do research in Canada: France. Graduate students can also apply to the Mitacs-JSPS Summer Program, which supports travel to Japan for a 10-week research project in Summer 2018. To learn more about these initiatives, visit the Globalink web page or contact Mitacs International at international@mitacs.ca.
The OceanPath Fellowship provides money for graduating students to do a year-long, community-focused project. The OceanPath Fellowship deadline is fast approaching – applications are due NOVEMBER 16! Check out how our current fellows, Hanna Chidwick and Nabeela Jivraj, are using their $25,000 fellowship to pursue innovative, community-focused experiential learning in East Africa in this feature article in the Gazette. It’s not too late to submit an application so please contact oceanpath@queensu.ca for a 1-1 advising appointment. Visit the OceanPath website for more information about this amazing post-graduate opportunity!

It All Adds Up is a career campaign developed to help students reflect on their activities and interests in and outside the classroom and build understanding and confidence that what they were doing was “adding up”.

Keep your eyes open for our campaign launch week happening November 6th-9th. Stop by our booth on campus in the Queen’s Centre from 11:30am - 2:30pm and join the campaign! You can also join the campaign now by posting your photo of how it all adds up by using #italladdsup + #queensu to Instagram, Facebook, or Twitter.

Visit careers.queensu.ca/students/it-all-adds to learn more!

Interested in Becoming a Peer with Career Services?
Career Services is searching for candidates for the Career Services Peer Program. Career Services Peers work one-to-one with undergraduate or graduate students, focusing primarily on strategies for improving resumes (or cover letters) rather than proofing or editing. We are seeking individuals who would be interested in developing or furthering their coaching skills and learning, in particular, how to guide interactions in appointments so as to lead to transformative learning (“Aha” moments) for clients. As a peer, you would provide 6 half-hour appointments at Career Services per week during office hours (at times suited to your schedule).

For More Information, visit: http://careers.queensu.ca/students/want-build-experience/volunteer/career-services-peer-program
Our workshops are in full swing, as are our free, drop-in scheduling events at various locations around campus. See our fall term’s workshop schedule for more details. Click on each of the images for more information.

Research (SPUR). SPUR provides an intensive summer research internship in the methods of social and personality psychology for undergraduates from underrepresented ethnic groups. Participating students conduct hands-on research and research-related activities full-time for eight weeks, working closely with a social-personality psychology faculty mentor at the mentor’s university. The program allows students to participate in an active lab with a research focus not available at their home institution. Applicants must be graduating in Summer 2018, Fall 2018, or Spring 2019 and ideally intending to apply to graduate school in social or personality psychology within one to two years. Spring 2018 graduates with a graduation date before July 2018 are not eligible. Up to ten students will be selected for the 2018 program, and each participant will receive a $3000 stipend to cover living expenses and up to $500 to cover travel to and from their summer research site. Interested applicants can learn more about the program or apply today. Applicants will be asked to identify up to five potential faculty mentors from the list of current mentors. All materials, including a letter of recommendation from a faculty member at each applicant's home institution, must be submitted by November 10, 2017. If you have questions, please contact spur@spsp.org.

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN: Reduced Cost MCAT Prep Course @ Queen’s School of Medicine (see flyer). For the first time ever, the Queen’s School of Medicine is offering an MCAT Preparatory Course. The course is designed to be a reduced cost option for students who are unable to afford commercial courses. If you are a motivated student, are planning on writing the MCAT in the next year, and are able to demonstrate financial need, you may be a candidate! The course will run Tuesdays and Thursdays 6-8PM from January 15 – May 7, 2018. It will include all MCAT subjects. Application deadline: November 24th, 201. Hi QBACCers (Queen's Backing Action on Climate Change)! We hope you're all doing well. Our next general meeting will be TOMORROW, Tuesday November 7th, at 7pm in MacCorry D214! This is one you won't want to miss: we're going to have an educational presentation about Indigenous Climate Activism. This topic is very important, especially in light of the ongoing Kinder Morgan Pipeline battles. An important piece of the discussion will include unpacking allyship and working through the core tenets of being good allies in the Indigenous climate community. We will also take some time to discuss what QBACC has coming up next and how you can get involved with climate activism on campus. Hope to see you there! www.qbacc.org queensbacc@gmail.com
