ALL YEARS
New Course Offerings from Gender Studies for the Winter Term:
GNDS 125/3.0 Gender, Race and Popular Culture is Tues. 10:30-11:20am and Thurs. 9:30-10:30am plus 1 hour tutorials on Thursdays or Fridays. This course explores popular culture from feminist and anti-racist perspectives, with attention to sexuality, gender, race, and nation in a variety of media. Topics include: fanvidding, Wonder Woman, 50 Shades, contemporary politics, activism, social media, surveillance culture, Queen’s cultures, alternative and mainstream comics, and much more. Gives students a strong critical tool set - drawing on the arts, humanities, and social sciences - with which to become cultural analysts. No prerequisite required.

GNDS 215/3.0 Introduction to Sexual and Gender Diversity is Tues. 8:30-10:30am with 1 hour tutorials either Mon.at 1:30pm or 4:30pm. This course is an introduction to critical studies in sexuality and gender diversity and is designed to familiarize students with a myriad of theories and topics in the field. Students will learn about classical and contemporary theories of sex, gender, and sexuality and explore the spectrum of gender and sexual identities, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer, asexual, transgender and transsexual, and intersex. Students will furthermore examine how these diverse identities intersect with experiences of race, class, age, (dis)ability, and nationhood. No prerequisite required. Level 2 standing or above.
Paid Research Assistant Positions in Behavioural Study

Dear Psychology Students,

We are looking for students to work as research confederates in a study on abusive supervision that is being conducted by Professor Matthias Spitzmuller and Undergraduate Honors Student Zoe Chan.

In this study, we will be using experimental methodology to examine third-party reactions to abusive supervision. Research assistants who are involved with this study will have the opportunity to learn about research methods and scientific study in behavioural research. As research assistants will be an integral part of the group experimental sessions, we are looking for students who are comfortable working in groups and are willing to take on the role of an abusive supervisor and/or victim for the study.

Research assistants will be expected to commit 10-12 hours a week for the remainder of the Fall semester until the end of February. All research assistants will be paid $18/hour for their work.

If you are interested in this position, please email your cover letter, unofficial transcript, and resume to matthias.spitzmuller@queensu.ca. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until all positions are filled.

What is Connecting Minds?

The exclusively undergraduate research conference in Psychology, hosted by Kwantlen Polytechnic University. Connecting Minds (CM) is the furthest reaching undergraduate conference of its kind, drawing student researchers from across Canada, the United States and even Europe. Since its inauguration in 2008, CM has hosted more than 300 high caliber research presentations representing over 30 institutions. With events aimed towards the interests of undergraduate students, CM presents graduate panels, grant application panels, and social opportunities. CM has also featured several world-renowned keynote speakers such as Drs. Elizabeth Loftus and Albert Bandura, both recognized among the top 100 most eminent psychologists of the 20th century.

Who? Dr. Adele Diamond

Adele Diamond, PhD, FRSC is the Canada Research Chair Professor of Developmental Cognitive Neuroscience at University of British Columbia (UBC), Vancouver, BC, Canada. Her discoveries have impacted education worldwide and improved treatment throughout the world for two medical disorders (PKU and ADHD). She’s been named one of the “2000 Outstanding Women of the 20th Century” and been recognized as one of the 15 most influential neuroscientists in the world today. Her specialty is “executive functions” (EFs), which depend on the brain’s prefrontal cortex. EFs enable us to resist temptations or automatic impulsive reactions, stay focused, mentally play with ideas, reason, problem solve, flexibly adjust to changed demands or priorities, and see things from new and different perspectives.

Dr. Diamond’s keynote address for Connecting Minds is 2018 is entitled, “Insights from Psychology and Neuroscience to help you Succeed in University and on the Job Market”.
