About Us

The Queen's Women's Association offers a wide variety of interest groups and events throughout the year.

Members meet to socialize and to share information about Queen's University and community activities.

Many of the Association's meetings take place in a comfortably furnished house at 187A King Street West.

The Association's objectives are:

1. to strengthen bonds between members of the Queen's Women's Association and Queen's University.
2. to enhance collegial life at Queen's University by providing congenial surroundings in which members can participate in social, intellectual, and cultural activities.
3. to support activities/programs relating to Queen's University.
