PREAMBLE

“Queen’s University and PSAC Local 901 are situated on the territory of the Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabek. This territory is included in the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabe nations to peaceably share and take care of the resources of the Great Lakes. Newcomers were later invited into this agreement in the spirit of friendship and respect. In 2017, the Kanyen’kehà:ka Clan Mothers from Tyendinaga and the Grandmother’s Council in Katarokwi presented Queen’s University with a friendship wampum.

The Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt calls upon us to take care of this land and all beings on it, and to share its resources reciprocally by recognizing each other’s needs and while ensuring that the Dish is never empty. In order to do so, as we work on this land, it is our understanding that we must seek to learn and be guided by Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee teachings. The Seven Grandfather Teachings of the Anishinaabek teaches us to treat all beings with Dabaadendiziwin (humility), Minwaadendamowin (respect), Zaagidiwin (love), Gwayakwaadiziwin (honesty), Aakodewewin (bravery), Nibwaakawin (wisdom) and Debwewin (truth). Similarly, the Haudenosaunee Seven Principles guide us to live in a good way as we follow the four white pine roots that lead to the Great Tree of Peace. These Haudenosaunee Seven Principles are: Kahletsyalusla (heartfelt encouragement of the best in each of us), Kanolukhwa’sla (compassion, caring identity and the joy of being), Ka? nikuhi’yo’ (openness of the good spirit and mind), Ka?tshatst^’sla (strength of belief and the vision as a people), Kalihwi’yo’ (use of the good words about ourselves, our Nation, and our future), Yukwahwa’tsile? (our families and Nation), Yukwatsistay^ (our fire, spirit, within each of us).*

This Collective Agreement, signed on behalf of the Employer and the Union by newcomers to this territory, seeks to learn, recognize and abide by our respective obligations to this land expressed by the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt and the teachings of the Haudenosaunee and Anishinaabek.”

*The Haudenosaunee Seven Principles are expressed in the Oneida language

Article 1 - Purpose

- 1.01 The general purpose of this Agreement is to establish an orderly collective bargaining relationship between the Queen's University at Kingston (hereafter referred to as the Employer) and its Employees represented under this Agreement by the Public Service Alliance of Canada (hereinafter referred to as the Union), to ensure the prompt and peaceful resolution of disputes and grievances, and to set forth an agreement covering rates of pay and other working conditions.

Article 11 – Grievance Procedure and Arbitration

- 11.01 A grievance is defined as any work-related dispute arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the specific terms of this Collective Agreement. It is the mutual desire of the Union and the Employer that grievances be addressed as quickly as possible.

- 11.02 (a) The Employer acknowledges the right and duties of the representatives of the Union to assist Employees in preparing and presenting a grievance.

(b) At any stage of the grievance procedure, an Employment Supervisor may be accompanied by another representative of the Employer.

(c) The parties agree to use every reasonable effort to resolve grievances arising from this Collective Agreement informally and promptly. All exchanges of information, communications, and offers of settlement shall be kept confidential.

- 11.03 A grievance may be one of the following types:

(a) Individual grievance: an individual Employee grieves against the Employer;

(b) Group grievance: two or more Employees grieve against the Employer for the same or similar reason, or based on the same or similar event, transaction or decision;

(c) Policy grievance: the Union grieves against the Employer's interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement. (d) Employer grievance: the Employer grieves against an action of the Union.

11.04 INFORMAL DISCUSSION:

Before any grievance is filed formally and, whenever it is possible, the Employment Supervisor where the Employee(s) work(s), the Faculty Relations Office (FRO) or a representative of the Local, as applicable, will be given the opportunity to resolve the matter informally, as follows:

- (a) The matter shall be brought to the attention of the Employment Supervisor, the FRO or the Local, as applicable, within fifteen (15) Business Days of the event, transaction or decision giving rise to the dispute, or within fifteen (15) days of the date that the Employee, the FRO or the Local, as applicable, ought reasonably to have been aware of the event, transaction or decision.
- (b) After the matter has been brought to the attention of the Employment Supervisor, the FRO or the Local, the Employment Supervisor and the Employee or the FRO and the Local, as applicable, shall meet to discuss the matter informally. In matters involving an individual Employee or a group of Employees, the Employee(s) may be accompanied by a representative of the Union if they wish. In matters involving a group of Employees, only one (1) affected Employee may be present at the Informal Discussion. The discussion shall take place within five (5) Business Days after the matter is brought to the attention of the Employment Supervisor, the FRO or the Local. If requested, the Employment Supervisor, the FRO or the Local shall provide a reply in writing within five (5) Business Days of the discussion. Any written reply will be without prejudice to the Employer's or Local's position on this or any similar matter.

11.05 STEP ONE

Individual or Group grievance:

- (a) Subject to sub-section (d) below, if a matter is not resolved by the Informal Discussion with the Employment Supervisor as provided for in Article 11.04 above, a formal Individual or Group grievance, as the case may be, may be submitted to the Department Head (or designate) for the Academic Unit in which the Employee(s) work(s). Such grievance shall be initiated within ten (10) Business Days of the Informal Discussion provided for in Article 11.04 above. The grievance must be stated in writing by the Local outlining the facts of the grievance, the Article(s) of the Agreement alleged to have been violated, and the relief sought. For an Individual grievance, the grievance form must be signed and dated by the grievor and a representative of the Local. For a Group grievance, all Employees affected may sign the grievance and up to three (3)

Employees in the group, in addition to the Employee that attends the Informal Discussion, may attend STEP ONE and STEP TWO grievance meetings. Any resolution of a Group grievance under this grievance procedure shall be applied to all affected Employees.

- (b) The Department Head (or designate) shall convene a meeting with the Employee, the Employment Supervisor, the FRO and the Local representative(s) to discuss the grievance within ten (10) Business Days of the receipt of the grievance and shall respond to the grievance in writing within ten (10) Business Days of this meeting.
- (c) Where the Department Head is the Employment Supervisor or, in a non-departmentalized faculty, if a matter is not resolved by the Informal Discussion with the Employment Supervisor as provided for in Article 11.04 above, the grievance shall proceed from the Informal Discussion directly to STEP TWO of the grievance procedure.
- (d) Grievances related to harassment, violence, and discrimination shall be filed as soon as possible following the incident(s) to which they relate and normally within one year after the incident(s) to which the grievance relates.

11.06 STEP TWO

- (a) Individual or Group grievance:
  - (i) If the grievance remains unresolved following the STEP ONE process, the grievance may be submitted to the Dean of the faculty in which the Employee works, with a copy to the FRO. Such grievance shall be submitted within ten (10) Business Days of the STEP ONE reply. The Dean (or designate) shall convene a meeting with the Employee(s), the FRO and the Union representative(s) to discuss the grievance within ten (10) Business Days of the receipt of the grievance and shall respond to the grievance in writing within ten (10) Business Days of this meeting.
  - (ii) Where, as per Article 11.05 (c), the grievance proceeds directly from the Informal Discussion to STEP TWO, the formal grievance may be submitted to the Dean of the faculty in which the Employee works, with a copy to the FRO. Such grievance shall be submitted within ten (10) Business Days of the Informal Discussion provided for in 11.04 above. The grievance must be stated in writing by the Union, outlining the facts of the grievance, the Article(s) of the Agreement alleged to have been violated, and the relief sought. For an Individual grievance, the grievance form must be signed and dated by the grievor and a representative of the Union. For a group grievance, all Employees affected may sign the grievance, and up to three (3) Employees of the group, in addition to the Employee who attends the Informal Discussion, may attend the STEP TWO grievance meeting. Any resolution under this grievance procedure shall be applied to all affected Employees.

(b) Policy grievance:

If a policy matter is not resolved by Informal Discussion as provided for in Article 11.04, the Union may initiate a Policy grievance at STEP TWO. However, it is expressly understood that the provisions of this paragraph may not be used by the Union to initiate a grievance directly affecting an Employee or Employees, which such Employee or Employees could themselves have initiated, and the regular grievance procedure shall not be thereby by-passed. Unless timelines are mutually extended by written agreement of the Employer and the Union, a Policy grievance shall be submitted in writing to the FRO within fifteen (15) Business Days of the Informal Discussion provided for in Article 11.04 above. The FRO shall convene a STEP TWO meeting with the Union to discuss the grievance within ten (10) Business Days of the receipt of the grievance and shall respond to the grievance in writing within ten (10) Business Days of the STEP TWO meeting.

(c) Employer grievance:

If a matter raised by the Employer is not resolved by Informal Discussion with the Local as provided for in Article 11.04, the Employer may initiate an Employer grievance at STEP TWO by delivering it in writing to the Kingston Regional Office of the Union within ten (10) Business Days of the Informal Discussion. The FRO shall convene a STEP TWO meeting with the Kingston Regional Office of the Union to discuss the grievance within ten (10) Business Days of delivery of the grievance. The Union shall provide its written response to the grievance within ten (10) Business Days of the STEP TWO meeting.

11.07 If the grievance remains unresolved following STEP TWO, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration as set forth in Article 11.11. If no written request for arbitration is received in accordance with Article 11.11, the grievance shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

11.08 Where no written response to the grievance is provided within the time limits specified in the grievance procedure, the grieving party shall be entitled to submit the grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure. Any grievance that is not commenced or processed to the next step in the grievance procedure within the applicable time limits, or as mutually extended by written agreement between the Employer and the Union, shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

- 11.09 An Employee, including an Employee who in their capacity as a Union representative accompanies an Employee at a meeting contemplated in this Article, will not suffer a loss in pay as a result of attendance at meetings between the Employer and the Employee as provided for under this Article. Both the Employee and the representative will provide as much advance notice as possible to their Employment Supervisor(s) of any such meetings that conflict with their employment responsibilities. The meeting may either proceed or be rescheduled to not conflict with the employment responsibilities of the Employee and the representative.

Arbitration Procedure

Appointment of an Arbitrator

- 11.10 Grievances shall be heard by a single arbitrator.
- 11.11 If the Employer or the Union requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party within twenty-five (25) Business Days of the written response under STEP TWO pursuant to Article 11.07. If no written response to the grievance is provided under STEP TWO and the Employer or the Union requests that the grievance be submitted to arbitration, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party within twenty-five (25) Business Days of the date the written response was due from the responding party. The grieving party will propose three (3) arbitrators to the responding party in the written request for arbitration.
- 11.12 If the responding party cannot agree to the appointment of any of the three (3) arbitrators proposed by the grieving party, it will propose three (3) arbitrators to the grieving party.
- 11.13 If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator within fifteen (15) Business Days of receiving the written request cited in Article 11.11, either party may request of the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario the appointment of an arbitrator, or the parties may elect to continue to attempt to reach agreement on the selection of an arbitrator.

Authority

- 11.14 An arbitrator has the power and authority as provided for in the Ontario Labour Relations Act, including the power to interpret and apply human rights and other employment-related statutes. The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, modify, change, or alter in any way the provisions of this Agreement or any expressly written amendment or supplement thereto or to extend its duration, unless the parties have expressly agreed, in writing, to the arbitrator's specific authority to do so, or to make a decision which has such effect.

- 11.15 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through the grievance procedure, except that the parties by mutual written consent may extend the time limits fixed in both the grievance and arbitration procedures or place the matter/grievance in abeyance pending the conclusion of an investigation or the resolution of the matter/grievance.
- 11.16 The written decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the Employees.
- 11.17 Each of the parties hereto will bear one-half of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.
- 11.18 No adjustment effected under the grievance or arbitration procedures shall be made retroactive to a date that is earlier in time than the event, transaction or decision giving rise to the grievance or from the time that the Employee, FRO or the Union ought reasonably to have been aware of the circumstances giving rise to the matter.
- 11.19 Where appropriate, the parties may, by mutual consent, agree to expedite the arbitration process. Expedited arbitration may proceed by agreed statement of facts and the parties may agree to request that the arbitrator deliver a decision orally at the conclusion of the hearing.

Article 12 – Appointments

- 12.01 The Employer shall make the decision as to the number of TA, TF, and RA appointments within the Bargaining Unit, and the qualifications required for each appointment, recognizing the principles on Employment Equity in Article 25.

The Union will be provided with its copy of the letter within five (5) Business Days of the letter having been provided to the Employee. In the case of (a) above, the Employer shall include an action plan that will assist the Employee in meeting performance expectations.

- 13.03 The Employer may directly discharge a probationary Employee, without just cause, and without using the progressive discipline process outlined in Article 15. Within one (1) Business Day from the time of such a suspension, the Employer shall provide the Employee with a letter setting out the allegation or threat with a copy to the Union. The letter will inform the Employee of their right to Union representation in connection with the matter and a meeting will be scheduled between the parties within three (3) Business Days of the above letter being provided. The parties may delay this meeting by written agreement pending the outcome of an investigation.

The Employer will complete the investigation and inform the Employee of the results of the investigation, and of any corrective action that has been or will be taken, normally within ninety (90) calendar days of the commencement of the investigation, unless there are extenuating circumstances warranting a longer investigation. During any meetings between the Employee and the Employer during the investigation, the Employee may choose to be accompanied by a Union representative.

Where, at the conclusion of the investigation, the allegations that were investigated are unfounded, there shall be no record of the investigation in the Employee's personnel file. Where the allegations are founded, the Employer may take disciplinary action.

Training activity is Employer-required when the relevant University Office (e.g., Environmental Health and Safety, Equity Office) mandates successful completion of certain training by an Employee ("Employer-required Training"). The records of the relevant University Office are considered proof of successful completion of training. Employer-required Training is work that is not included in an Employee's allotted hours on the TAF or RAF, or the number of Scheduled Training Hours on the TFF, but rather, is identified by the Employment Supervisor and assigned as required activity/responsibility for the Employee on the TAF, TFF, or RAF.

If additional or different Employer-required Training is mandated by a University Office, the allotted hours will be adjusted accordingly, as will the hours of compensation paid for successful completion, but without the necessity of completing a new TAF/TFF.

An Employee who has not previously completed the applicable Employer-required Training is required to complete the Employer-required Training by the date that is the last calendar day of the first month of the Academic Term of the Employee's TAship, TFship, or RAship ("Training Completion Date"), and, upon successful completion, will be paid at the regular hourly wage rate for a TA or RA for hours spent on such training, but shall not exceed the time allocated to such activity by the relevant University Office or Department. An Employee who does not complete all Employer-required Training successfully by the Training Completion Date shall not be eligible for subsequent employment with the University, including a subsequent TAship, TFship, or RAship, until the Employee furnishes proof to their Employment Supervisor of successful completion of the Employer-required Training.

- 18.03 Employees are to be paid by direct deposit into the account and institution of their choosing.

- 20.01 The Employer agrees to provide a working environment that is free from discrimination, harassment, and violence. The parties are committed to fair treatment of all members of the University community and do not condone behaviour that is contrary to the Human Rights Code, this Article, the University's workplace policies with respect to harassment, discrimination and violence, or the Occupational Health and Safety Act.
- 20.02 The parties agree that every Employee has a right to equal treatment with respect to employment without discrimination because of race, colour, ancestry, place of birth, ethnic or national origin, citizenship, creed, religious or political affiliation or belief or practice, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, physical attributes, marital status, family status, age, physical or mental illness or disability, place of residence, record of offences for which a pardon has been granted, language (except where competence in a language is a bona fide occupational requirement), and membership/non-membership or participation/non-participation in Union activity.
- 20.03 "Workplace Harassment" is defined as engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in the workplace or work-related third-party premises that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome, including "Workplace Sexual Harassment" as defined in Article 20.04. "Workplace Harassment" may be related to one or more of the prohibited grounds of discrimination under Article 20.02, and may include a pattern of behaviour, such as bullying, that causes humiliation, embarrassment, or intimidation.
- 20.04 "Workplace Sexual Harassment" means,

- (c) a statement or behaviour that it is reasonable for a worker to interpret as a threat to exercise physical force against the worker, in a workplace, that could cause physical injury to the worker.

20.06 A reasonable action taken by the Employer or its Employees relating to the management and direction of workers or the workplace is not Workplace Harassment. For example, Workplace Harassment does not include properly discharged supervisory responsibilities including performance evaluation, disciplinary action, day-to-day management of the operation, or conduct that does not interfere with a climate of understanding and respect for the dignity and work of Queen's University Employees.

20.07 When a discrimination or harassment complaint arises on the basis of a prohibited ground under the Human Rights Code, the Employee may seek assistance from the University Human Rights Office. Upon being approached by the Employee, staff of the University’s Human Rights Office shall inform the Employee of their right to seek assistance and representation from the Union, which may include filing a grievance.

20.08 The Employer agrees that information and training regarding harassment and discrimination is essential and will ensure that Bargaining Unit Members are provided with appropriate information and training about the University’s discrimination and harassment policies and programs, which will include information about applicable legislation.

LETTER OF AGREEMENT #2

Letter of Agreement Re: Article 21 of the Collective Agreement, Joint Health and Safety Committees

The Union and the Employer agree that:

1. The reference to "Employee Representative" in Article 21.03 of the Collective Agreement shall mean someone as selected by the Union who is or will be an Employee as per Article 3 of the Collective Agreement within the twelve month period in which they are a member of the Joint Health & Safety Committee ("Committee"), but no earlier than four months before they are an Employee and who:
  - (a) works within one of the work units to which the applicable Committee is intended for; or
  - (b) has demonstrated experience in Occupational Health & Safety matters in the workplace that are relevant to the applicable Committee to which the Employee will be appointed.
2. An individual who has been serving as an Employee Representative ceases to be an Employee Representative when they cease to be registered as a graduate student, or registered as a student in the JD program or MD program at the University or have not been employed by the University as a TA, TF, or RA in the Bargaining Unit for a period of twelve (12) months or longer.
3. No Employee shall be the Employee Representative on more than one Committee.
4. In addition to the lump sum payment set out at Article 10.04 of the Collective Agreement, the Employer shall provide to the Union, no later than September 30th of each year, a lump sum equivalent to $2,300 for each applicable Committee on which the Union has an Employee Representative. The distribution of this money will be at the full discretion of the Union, provided that the Union provides a record of spent money to the Employer upon request.

The sum of $2,300 will be pro-rated in the first year of the renewed Collective Agreement based on the date of ratification.

5. Where the number of Committees is adjusted between October 1st of one year and September 30th of the following year, the Employer will increase this lump sum payment on a prorated basis if the number of applicable Committees with Employee Representatives increases or alternatively, the Union will return a portion of the lump sum payment on a prorated basis if the number of applicable Committees with Employee Representatives decreases. The prorated amount will be determined by taking the number of days that have passed between October 1st and September 30th and dividing by 365.
6. The payment(s) as described at Paragraphs 4 and 5 are consistent with and fully satisfy the Employer's obligations under Section 9(34) and 9(35) of the Occupational Health and Safety Act to provide the Employee Representative with compensation for time spent in connection with their responsibilities to the applicable Committee.
7. Where there is no appointed Employee Representative for an applicable Committee, then upon request from the Union the Department of Environmental Health and Safety shall provide the Union, within ten working (10) days, with the applicable Committee's approved minutes and finalized inspection reports. The Union's handling of any such documentation shall be consistent with any rules, procedures or expectations that apply to an Employee Representative on the applicable Committee.
8. This Letter of Agreement will expire upon the expiration of the 2021-2024 Collective Agreement.
