

2021-2022 Annual Summary: Non-Academic Misconduct

150

Students Responsible for Code Violations

1 Student Group Responsible for Code Violations

↓ Violations decreased by 53% compared to 2020-2021, returning to pre-pandemic levels.

Top Violations:

48% Contravention of Policy or Law

↓ Down by 13% from 2020-21. Disruption/Interference and Alcohol/Drugs also decreased.

18% Misconduct Involving Property

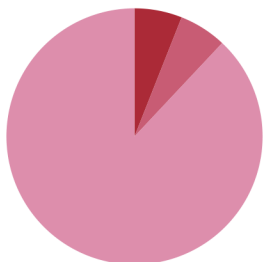

↑↑ Up by 200% over 2020-21.

7% Misconduct Against Persons

↑↑ Up by 250% over 2020-21.

Reports of Sexual Violence involving Student Respondents are referred to the Student Conduct Office for investigation, case management, and resolution. Reports increased compared to 2020-2021. More information is available in the 2021-2022 Sexual Violence Report.

* Year-over-year comparisons have been impacted by COVID-19 circumstances, regulations, and public health measures.

Outcomes:

6% Corrective

6% Restorative

88% Educational

↑ Educational outcomes increased by 2% over 2020-2021.

2021-2022 Annual Summary: Non-Academic Misconduct

57% Respondents Under Age 19

↑ Upper-year Respondents increased due to more referrals from City Partners (i.e. Kingston Police, Bylaw) compared to 2020-2021.

“Most Respondents are Undergraduate students (99%).”

Faculty/School	% of Total Queen's Enrolment	% of Total Respondents in Cases Received by NAMIO	% of Faculty/School Involved as Respondents
Smith School of Business	7.49%	15.70%	4.19%
Engineering & Applied Science	12.42%	25.45%	4.09%
Arts & Science	47.03%	54.51%	2.31%
2% of all Queen's students were involved in the NAM system as Respondents.
Health Sciences	8.98%	3.06%	0.68%
Graduate Studies	19.64%	1.26%	0.12%
Bader College	0.42%	0%	0%
Education	1.81%	0%	0%
Law	2.21%	0%	0%

4 Cases were directed to NAMIO under the Harassment and Discrimination Prevention and Response Policy.

2 Cases were reported as general harassment under the Code.

* The low number of cases should not be considered as an indication that there are no or few hate/bias motivated incidents that occur on campus or impact students. Resources and information are available in the Policy.

4 Appeals were heard by the NAM Appeal Panel.

This is consistent with the appeal volume in 2020-2021.