Comprehensive Examinations

2023 Elizabeth-Ann Viscione, Department of Psychology, University of Rhode Island (P. Morokoff)

As a member of the Clinical Comprehensives Committee, I reviewed 4 written comprehensive examination papers (Micanovic, Rowe, Nault, Sherifi)

2021 Isabelle Quintal, École de réadaptation, Faculté de médicine et des sciences de la santé, Université de Sherbrooke (M. Morin)

2021 Tibeb Debele, School of Rehabilitation Therapy, Queen's University

2021 As a member of the Clinical Comprehensives Committee, I reviewed 3 written comprehensive examination papers (Mihajlovic, Mooney, Woolridge)

2020 Gabriela Ioachim, Centre for Neuroscience Studies (P. Stroman)

2020 As a member of the Clinical Comprehensives Committee, I reviewed 6 written comprehensive examination papers (Fretz, Kim, Man, Maunder, McInnis, Quickert, Tassone)

2020 Jocelyn Powers, Centre for Neuroscience Studies (P. Stroman)

2019 Lindsey Yessick, Department of Psychology (T. Salomons)

2015 As Chair of the Clinical Programme, I evaluated 7 students for the oral comprehensive examinations (Best, Dawson, Gates, Hall, Krsmanovic, Mazurka, Timmers) and read the full versions of each of these student's written comprehensive examination papers; these tasks were done in conjunction with members of the Clinical Comprehensive Committee

2014 As Chair of the Clinical Programme, I evaluated 6 students for the oral comprehensive examinations (Grossman, Holshausen, Lanteigne, Schumann, Stead, Washburn) and read the full versions of each of these student's written comprehensive examination papers; these tasks were done in conjunction with members of the Clinical Comprehensive Committee. I approved 7 written comprehensive proposals: Best, Dawson, Gates, Hall, Krsmanovic, Mazurka, Timmers

2013 Mary Jane O'Donovan, School of Rehabilitation Therapy. CIHR grant proposal: Capturing clinicians' knowledge to identify physical predictors of chronic low back pain and testing those indicators in a prospective acute low back injury population

2013 As Chair of the Clinical Programme, I evaluated 6 students for the oral comprehensive examinations (Bossio, Chin, Dargie, Gupta, Heenan, Katz, LaRoque, Wayne), and read the full versions of each of these student's written comprehensive examination papers; these tasks were done in conjunction with members of the Clinical Comprehensive Committee. I approved 6 written comprehensive proposals: Grossman, Holshausen, Lanteigne, Schumann, Stead, Washburn

2012 As Chair of the Clinical Programme, I attended a re-take of the oral comprehensive examination (Magrys) in June 2012, and I reviewed 4 written comprehensive papers of the following students: Magrys, Murphy-Legate, Patterson, and Pishva. In addition, I approved 8 written comprehensive paper proposals: Bossio, Chin, Dargie, Gupta, Heenan, Katz, Laroque, and Wayne.

2009 As a member of the Clinical Comprehensive Committee, I reviewed 4 papers and attended 4 oral examinations of the following students: Sutton, Ginting, O'Connell, Clifford 2008 As a member of the Clinical Comprehensive Committee, I reviewed 5 full papers (Hsieh, Sutherland, Vanstone, Waxman, Whaley) and attended 5 oral examinations (Hsieh, Sutherland, Vanstone, Waxman, Whaley).

2008 C. Figley, Centre for Neuroscience Studies. Supervisor: P. Stroman, PhD

Graduate Theses: Chair

1. L. Li (2023). Navigating through a scene: Understanding object memory within an immersive virtual environment. Master of Science Degree, Department of Psychology (Supervisor: M. Castelhano, PhD)
2. S. Manuel (2022). The role of daily interpersonal difficulties in the relationship between perfectionistic concerns and change in anhedonic depressivity. Master of Science Degree, Department of Psychology (Supervisor: L. Flores, PhD)
