PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENTAL DEADLINES/EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

New this Fall UGChat!

Are you looking for general guidance, an opportunity to chat with an academic advisor and/or peers, or a chance to talk generally about your academic plan and career options? This is a session for you!

Happening Fridays from 1-2pm throughout the fall and winter terms, drop into one of our brand new active-learning classrooms for active academic advising. Dr. Norris, Undergraduate Chair in Psychology, will be in Humphrey 223 to help with general questions about plans, to walk you through how to run your Academic Advisement Report, to point out career considerations, and to highlight opportunities on campus that match with your interests and goals. This is a group drop-in session with the goal of equipping students with information that is of interest to them in an informal and helpful way, and building connections among our students. There is no formal agenda, just bring your laptop and questions!

October Dates:
October 11, 18 & 25

Fall Convocation

Have you completed all of your degree requirements at the end of summer term and would like to graduate this fall? Apply to graduate through your Student Service Centre in SOLUS through Academics-My Academics-Graduation-Apply to Graduation. Applications will be accepted until October 15, 2019.

Please visit the Registrar’s convocation page for further details:
http://www.queensu.ca/registrar/students/convocation/fall-2019

Queen’s Global Energy Conference (QGEC)

Queen’s Global Energy Conference (QGEC) is an all-faculty-inclusive conference that focuses on the energy sector from a global perspective and brings together speakers from all energy perspectives to talk on the subject.

This Thursday night at 8 pm in Clark Hall Pub QGEC is hosting an event called Local Vibes 2019 #SustainableQueens in support of Queen’s Sustainability Week. In an effort to create a more sustainable Queen’s, Clark Hall will only be using reusable cups, rags to clean up instead of napkins, and waste watcher stations from the Sustainability Office to ensure proper recycling and compost is underway. The event focuses on being as waste free as possible.

Please join us tomorrow night to learn more about QGEC and enjoy local artists Lauren Carson, Mint, Sean from the Yukon, and Refreshingly Biblical. The energy sector involves everyone and we are hoping to get the conversation started with you tomorrow!

Thank you and check out our Facebook page here: https://www.facebook.com/events/412002299697798/

We look forward to seeing you all tomorrow night!

Insight Global Education

Earn Credits. Travel Abroad.

Intern with an organization making a tangible impact in its field.

At Insight, we embrace a different model of learning. Students who participate in our global programming have unique opportunities to learn directly from local peoples. With that in mind, all of our programs are designed and delivered in partnership with local organizations, institutions and individuals, ensuring your impact is sustainable.
Spend your next semester abroad, immersed in a new culture with a cohort of like-minded students, developing meaningful skill sets while earning credit towards your degree. Credits are earned through one of our local university partners, with courses taught by tenured professors. Internships are run by partner organizations running long-term, sustainable initiatives. Accommodations are fully organized by Insight with all students living in a safe, vetted location. Support is provided by our in-country team throughout the entire duration of your program, from your arrival in-country to your departure back home.

Programs currently held in Uganda, Fiji and Thailand. Details about our programming can be found here.

Other Health Services/Resources at Queen’s:

Physical Therapy Clinic
Sexual Health Resource Centre (SHRC)
DrugSmart: A pharmacy located in the Queen’s Centre.
Environmental Health and Safety
Food Centre, AMS: A non-profit, confidential, and non-judgmental food service for members of the Queen’s community.

Peer Support Centre:

The Peer Support Centre is a service on campus that provides one-on-one peer support to all undergraduate students. It thrives on being confidential and non-judgemental. Every student is always welcome to drop-in for a chat or resource referral. Students are free to talk about anything they choose. No problem is too big or too small! We are open 10am - 10pm, 7 days a week starting in September.

Disability Services

Student Wellness Services assists students in the following ways:

- Recommends exam accommodations
- Facilitates access to material in alternate formats
- Provides assistive technologies
- Coordinates learning strategies and library research workshops
- Coordinates volunteer note-taking and peer mentor programs

NOTE: Students with disabilities who wish to make use of the services available must register at Disability Services every academic year and must forward supporting documentation to the Student Wellness Services Office.

Other disability services offered at Queen's include...

- Learning Strategies Development: This program enhances students' ability to learn effectively and helps students develop greater confidence in their abilities.
- Learning Disabilities Specialists: Offered through the Regional Assessment and Resource Centre, these specialists provide assessment and services for students with possible learning disabilities and other neuropsychological conditions.
- InvisAbilities: A student organization promoting awareness, education, and support of young adults living with hidden chronic illness. Started at Queen's in 2009, the group has spread to include chapters at McGill University, University of Ottawa, Brock University, and University of Calgary.

Academic Support

The transition to university life is a big one – and part of it is adjusting to the challenges and workload that are part of being a Queen’s student. At Queen’s you are never alone. We have many offices dedicated to helping you learn, think, and do.

The Learning Commons

The Queen's Learning Commons (QLC) is both a hub of services supporting formal academic programs and a meeting place within Stauffer Library. It encompasses physical and online environments, accommodating different approaches to learning.

The QLC provides resources, workshops and seminars, and one-on-one professional consultations for students who want to enhance or develop their skills.

The QLC is composed of:

- The Adaptive Technology Centre / Library Services for Students with Disabilities
- ITServices: Services include many learning resources and workshop opportunities
- Queen’s Library: Services include Subject Liaison Librarians who can help you locate resources for your field of study
• Student Academic Success Services who can help you improve your writing and academic skills and confidence through online resources, workshops and individual appointments.
