PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENTAL DEADLINES/EVENTS/OPPORTUNITIES

New this Fall UGChat!

Are you looking for general guidance, an opportunity to chat with an academic advisor and/or peers, or a chance to talk generally about your academic plan and career options? This is a session for you!

Happening Fridays from 1-2pm throughout the fall and winter terms, drop into one of our brand new active-learning classrooms for active academic advising. Dr. Norris, Undergraduate Chair in Psychology, will be in Humphrey 223 to help with general questions about plans, to walk you through how to run your Academic Advisement Report, to point out career considerations, and to highlight opportunities on campus that match with your interests and goals. This is a group drop-in session with the goal of equipping students with information that is of interest to them in an informal and helpful way, and building connections among our students. There is no formal agenda, just bring your laptop and questions!

DR. PHOEBE C. ELLSWORTH, Professor of Psychology and Law, University of Michigan

TALK: Appraisal Theories of Emotion

ABSTRACT
Emotion was largely neglected in Psychology until the late 20th century, when it quickly became a central focus of research. This talk traces this history and describes the major theoretical approaches to emotion, with particular emphasis on appraisal theories and their applications to various areas of Psychology, especially cross-cultural psychology.

BIOGRAPHY
Phoebe C. Ellsworth is the Frank Murphy Distinguished University Professor of Psychology and Law at the University of Michigan. She received her BA from Harvard and her PhD from Stanford, and taught at Yale and Stanford before coming to Michigan. She is known for her work on emotion, and is an originator of the appraisal theory of emotion. She has also done work in the field of Psychology and Law on topics such as public opinion and the death penalty, juries, and the relation between law and social science. She has been awarded the APS Cattell award for lifetime contribution in applied research, the SESP Distinguished Scientist award, and the SPSP Career Contribution and Legacy awards, as well as awards from APA, APS, and SPSP for excellence in mentoring.

Insight

Insight facilitates unique, semester-long internship and study abroad programs for undergraduate students. Our programs give students the opportunity to intern and study in the Global South at the same time, ensuring a holistic and rigorous educational experience.

Earn Credits. Travel Abroad.

Intern with an organization making a tangible impact in its field.

At Insight, we embrace a different model of learning. Students who participate in our global programming have unique opportunities to learn directly from local peoples. With that in mind, all of our programs are designed and delivered in partnership with local organizations, institutions and individuals, ensuring your impact is sustainable.

Spend your next semester abroad, immersed in a new culture with a cohort of like-minded students, developing meaningful skill sets while earning credit towards your degree. Credits are earned through one of our local university partners, with courses taught by tenured professors. Internships are run by partner organizations running long-term, sustainable initiatives. Accommodations are fully organized by Insight with all students living in a safe, vetted location. Support is provided by our in-country team throughout the entire duration of your program, from your arrival in-country to your departure back home.

Programs currently held in Uganda, Fiji and Thailand. Details about our programming can be found here.
CONNECT WITH LOCAL ACTIVISTS. ADVENTURE OFF THE BEATEN PATH. BACKPACK WITH A PURPOSE.

At Operation Groundswell, we go behind the scenes to connect you with our friends in faraway places: Farmers, artists, educators and activists who are making meaningful change in their communities.

With two seriously fun and experienced leaders, our small teams dive into life on the ground through immersive home stays, adventurous activity and ethical project work led by our local partners. Right now, save $100-$400 with our Early Bird pricing! We also have grants available for students that can cover up to 25% of your program fee. Details online.

Our 2020 programs are filling up, so apply as soon as possible. The deadline for Early Bird applications is November 22nd!

Other Health Services/Resources at Queen’s:
Physical Therapy Clinic
Sexual Health Resource Centre (SHRC)
DrugSmart: A pharmacy located in the Queen’s Centre.
Environmental Health and Safety
Food Centre, AMS: A non-profit, confidential, and non-judgmental food service for members of the Queen’s community.

Peer Support Centre:
The Peer Support Centre is a service on campus that provides one-on-one peer support to all undergraduate students. It thrives on being confidential and non-judgmental. Every student is always welcome to drop-in for a chat or resource referral. Students are free to talk about anything they choose. No problem is too big or too small! We are open 10am - 10pm, 7 days a week starting in September.

Disability Services
Student Wellness Services assists students in the following ways:
- Recommends exam accommodations
- Facilitates access to material in alternate formats
- Provides assistive technologies
- Coordinates learning strategies and library research workshops
- Coordinates volunteer note-taking and peer mentor programs

NOTE: Students with disabilities who wish to make use of the services available must register at Disability Services every academic year and must forward supporting documentation to the Student Wellness Services Office.

Other disability services offered at Queen’s include...
- Learning Strategies Development: This program enhances students' ability to learn effectively and helps students develop greater confidence in their abilities.
- Learning Disabilities Specialists: Offered through the Regional Assessment and Resource Centre, these specialists provide assessment and services for students with possible learning disabilities and other neuropsychological conditions.
- InvisAbilities: A student organization promoting awareness, education, and support of young adults living with hidden chronic illness. Started at Queen’s in 2009, the group has spread to include chapters at McGill University, University of Ottawa, Brock University, and University of Calgary.
Academic Support

The transition to university life is a big one – and part of it is adjusting to the challenges and workload that are part of being a Queen’s student. At Queen’s you are never alone. We have many offices dedicated to helping you learn, think, and do.

The Learning Commons

The Queen’s Learning Commons (QLC) is both a hub of services supporting formal academic programs and a meeting place within Stauffer Library. It encompasses physical and online environments, accommodating different approaches to learning.

The QLC provides resources, workshops and seminars, and one-on-one professional consultations for students who want to enhance or develop their skills.

The QLC is composed of:

- The Adaptive Technology Centre / Library Services for Students with Disabilities
- ITServices: Services include many learning resources and workshop opportunities
- Queen’s Library: Services include Subject Liaison Librarians who can help you locate resources for your field of study
- Student Academic Success Services who can help you improve your writing and academic skills and confidence through online resources, workshops and individual appointments.

Career Services

As the central provider of career education and employment support services at Queen’s University for undergraduate, graduate students and recent alumni from all disciplines. They offer a comprehensive range of accessible services to support and empower students in making informed decisions about their career, further education and employment goals.
